MALENKOV CHIEF CLAIMANT TO MANTLE OF STALIN

Diplomats In Europe Think Premier Dead

Washington (AP)—The name of Georgi M. Malenkov led all the rest in Washington speculation on a possible successor to the gravely ill Joseph Stalin, but Russian specialists said anything could happen in the event of the Premier's early death.

Malenkov, like V. M. Molotov a deputy premier, seems to outside observers to have strengthened his position greatly in recent years. He took a particularly prominent role in last fall's Russian Communist Party Congress. He is a close associate of Stalin.

London (AP)—Moscow announced today that Joseph Stalin is gravely ill after suffering a brain stroke. Leaders of the Communist satellites in Europe were reported called to Moscow—adding to speculation that the Russian Prime Minister may already be dead.

First word of the illness of the 73-year old dictator came soon after sunrise, in a Moscow broadcast saying he had suffered the stroke Sunday night—more than 48 hours earlier. Stalin was described as in a coma, with his body partly paralyzed and his condition grave.

There was immediate speculation among diplomats here that Stalin already was dead, and that the Communist party was leading up to the disclosure of that in easy stages. Then East Berlin associates of Walter Ulbricht, Communist boss of East Germany, reported he had flown to Moscow last night.

PTA Council Plans First Aid Courses In Defense Program

Cooperating with the civilian defense program for Warren county, the Community PTA Council announces courses in first aid instruction have been arranged as follows:

On Mondays, starting March 9, at 7:30 p. m., in Red Cross headquarters in the Warren Service Center, 404 Market street.

On Tuesdays, beginning March 10, at 7:30 o'clock in the South street school building.

On Thursdays, starting March 12, also at 7:30 p. m., in the McCintock school building.

Each class will be required to take seven weeks of three-hour sessions.

Eugene Brown, Red Cross first aid chairman, is working with the PTA Council, of which Mrs. Roger Olson is president, to make these dates and places available. Superintendent of Schools Carl E. Whipple is aiding both groups in the proposed project.

"Flyers" are being sent out through the schools regarding first aid, but those in charge stress the fact that all persons interested in such instruction are urged to participate in whichever evening class is best suited to their personal programs.

It is hoped that many persons in Warren will avail themselves of this opportunity of gaining worth while instruction, since first aid knowledge is very beneficial in both the home and the community.

Any one desiring further information is asked to call any local PTA president, Mr. Brown, or the Red Cross, 2926.

New Legal Holiday Considered in State

Harrisburg (AP)—Pennsylvania would get a special legal holiday every 10 years on the anniversary of the commonwealth's creation by royal charter in 1681 under a new House bill.

Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader, introduced the measure yesterday to celebrate March 15 as Charter Day. If the bill became law the first legal holiday would be observed in 1961.

King Charles II granted the charter to William Penn on March 15, 1681, creating the corporate legal existence of Pennsylvania.

The bill also provides for the governor to annually call upon residents of the commonwealth by proclamation to observe March 15 as Charter Day.

Demand for 60 MPH Limit on Turnpike Brings State Probe

By JOHN KOENIG JR., Lancaster, Pa. (AP)—A recommendation for a 60-mile-an-hour speed limit along the entire Pennsylvania Turnpike touched off a legislative investigation today on safety conditions on the 327-mile toll road across the state.

"Few would be inconvenienced and probably many would have a greater sense of safety, security and well being by reducing the speed limit from 70 to 60 miles an hour," said William S. Canning, engineering director for the Keystone Automobile Club.

There now is a speed limit of 60 miles for automobiles on the western half of the turnpike. The east leg, ending at King-of-Prussia, near Philadelphia, has a 70-mile limit.

Canning testified before a 10-member committee of the House and Senate of the General Assembly, set up to inquire into safety conditions along the famed express highway.

Constitution Change In State Improbable

Harrisburg (AP)—Little hope was held in the Senate today for committee approval of a House-passed bill setting up a convention to revise Pennsylvania's 79-year old Constitution.

The administration measure, passed in the House by a 184-9 vote on Monday, was dropped into the hands of the Senate Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Judge Drew to Again Ask for Nomination

Pittsburgh (AP)—Judge John Drew of the Allegheny County Common Pleas Court said today he will seek nomination for the post on both the Republican and Democratic tickets.

Judge Drew has held the post since September, 1951, when he was appointed to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Judge Frank Patterson.

FIGHTING ROK ARMY REGAINS HILL POSITION

Seoul (AP)—Valiant South Korean infantrymen regained the top of a bloody outpost hill position on the Central Korean Front today in a thunderous climax to 23 hours of savage close-quarter fighting with an estimated 500 Chinese Reds.

The Republic of Korea troops had pulled back from the outpost at midday and let Allied warplanes turn the hill into a smoking mass of bomb craters and debris.

In late afternoon the ROKs counterattacked and forced their way back to the top of the unnamed hill southeast of Kumsong. The Eighth Army briefing officer said the South Koreans counted 30 Chinese dead on the battlefield when the fighting ended just before dark. Another 90 Reds were estimated killed and 60 wounded. That would be a casualty toll of 180—more than one third of the attack force.

ASKS FOR DRAFT EXTENSION

Washington (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet urged today that the two-year draft period be extended to 30 or 36 months.

He told the House Armed Services Committee that this extension is needed "to better prepare our boys to live" in combat by giving them more and better training.

Promotions for Six Cause Big Strike At Large Penna. Mine

Waynesburg, Pa. (AP)—Some 2,900 miners at one of the world's largest mines, striking over the promotion of six men, gathered today at 2 p. m. at nearby Mason-town to discuss the issues.

The miners, members of the United Mine Workers, are employed at the Robena Mine, owned by U. S. Steel Corp. Albert Cavalcante, president of the Robena UMW local, said the grievance centers around the promotion of six men. He said seniority rights of others were ignored when the men were promoted.

The strikers, who failed to report to work yesterday, voted to strike Saturday. About 14,000 miners employed in U. S. Steel's 10 other mines in the area continue to work.

A U. S. Steel official said the present contract with the union calls for the dispute to be settled through grievance machinery. He called the walkout a contract violation.

Continue Probe Of Installment Murder

Butler, Pa. (AP)—State police sought today to collect final evidence in their case against Ernest Storch and three negroes he is accused of hiring to slay his 49-year old wife, Alice.

So far the four men have not been given a hearing. Authorities refused to comment on a report three other persons have been taken into custody for questioning.

Dist. Atty. Clark H. Painter said Storch, 50-year-old auto mechanic, and the Pittsburgh negroes—Richard Haines, Russell Budd and Walter Henderson—admitted the crime. Mrs. Storch was strangled and stabbed in her home near Zelienople Feb. 24.

Warren Recreation Board to Consider Civil Defense Need

The Warren Recreation Board, created by Borough Council a few months ago, will meet this week to act on recommendations made at a meeting with Borough Manager C. W. Barwis, Tuesday, at which time Civil Defense representatives joined with Council's Parks and Playgrounds committee and Recreation Board representatives in considering construction of an Air Observation Post at War Memorial Field.

Nick Merenick, chairman of the Parks and Playgrounds committee, was accompanied to the meeting by the other committee members, J. A. Carbon and David C. Levine; the Recreation Board was represented by its chairman, Ray Reed, and by Robert Wilder; and the Civil Defense organization had George R. Eberhardt, supervisor of

Lie Detector Test For Victim's Brother

Ebensburg, Pa. (AP)—Dist. Atty. Fred J. Fees said today Jean Christoff, brother of a strangled Pennsylvania State College co-ed, will be given a lie detector test.

The 24-year-old former Carnegie Tech student, says he knows nothing about his sister's death. However, Fee said Christoff admitted several burglaries.

Clyde Hansen Traps 60-Pound Beaver

CLYDE HANSEN, above, of Conewango avenue extension, who has trapped for beaver since there first was an open season 17 years ago, found his prize catch this morning when he took a 60-pound animal from his traps along Kinzua Creek. Previously weighed at the United Refinery, where Mr. Hansen is employed, the beaver is displayed by Mr. Hansen at Don Finley's sporting goods store. Mr. Hansen said his beaver trapping is over for this year as the quota is three and he previously caught two, each weighing about 25 pounds. The beaver shown in the picture is of the bank variety and while it does not build dams, it does cut trees. Mr. Hansen, who is well known as a trapper, caught 101 foxes a year ago and between 75 and 100 in several other seasons.

VAN FLEET DECLARES UNITED NATIONS CAN WIN IN KOREA WITHOUT EXTENDING THE WAR

Washington (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet declared today the United Nations forces can win a military victory in Korea without necessarily broadening the war.

"That is my personal opinion," the four-star general told the House Armed Services Committee. He added he would have to discuss any details in a closed session.

Van Fleet called the present war situation of stabilized lines a "sitdown of our own choice." He said it is "not a checkmate, not even a stalemate."

Rep. Vinson D-Ga asked the former Korean commander "if an offensive is launched, wouldn't that be broadening the war?"

"Not necessarily," replied the general. "That's my opinion. It would not."

Spectators crowded into the big hearing room in the House office building. Many were standing.

Van Fleet asserted at the outset that he would not publicly discuss military planning in Korea.

"I can't, of course, talk about plans as a matter of policy—not my policy but yours," he said.

He was referring to a statement by Chairman Dewey Short (R-Mo) that the general was under no restraint in his testimony but saying nothing to "give comfort to the enemy."

"They were hurt badly," Van Fleet said. "In my opinion that's why they asked us to talk things over at the conference table."

IRAN SEETHES, PALACE MOVE IS EXPECTED

Tehran, Iran (AP)—Premier Mohammed Mossadegh kept up offensive today in his struggle for power with Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi, demanding that Parliament intervene in alleged royal court intrigues against his government.

The move was disclosed last night by the semi-official newspaper Bakhtar. Emrooz as Tehran returned closer to normal after riotous demonstrations in which three persons were killed and an estimated 60 injured since Saturday.

Bakhtar Emrooz said Mossadegh is insisting that Parliament approach the royal court and demand elimination of intrigues. The newspaper asserted that the Premier has threatened to call a referendum of the people if the palace does not take action against the alleged plotters.

If the referendum is favorable to him, the newspaper said, the Premier will be in a position to act for himself. If the vote goes against him, he will resign, it added.

Just when parliament could take any action was not clear, however. The capital city was quiet today. Shops and bazaars that closed down at the start of the trouble Saturday night were beginning to open.

Efforts to Achieve Alaska's Statehood Are Given Emphasis

Washington (AP)—Chairman Saylor (R-Pa) of the House Territories Subcommittee said today he will work just as hard for committee approval of the Alaska statehood bill as for Hawaii statehood.

The Hawaii bill was approved by the House Interior Committee yesterday after Democratic members failed by a 14-13 vote to add the Alaska bill to it.

Saylor told a reporter he has set aside four days beginning March 20 for a hearing on Alaska statehood, if Alaska supporters of the bill can be ready that soon.

Otherwise, Saylor said, the hearing will be held beginning April 20.

Saylor said he will give Delegate Bartlett (D-Alaska) the same vigorous support for the Alaska bill as he gave Delegate Farrington (R-Hawaii).

He predicted house passage of the Hawaii bill next week, but by a closer vote than the 262 to 110 margin by which a similar bill passed the House in 1950.

CIO Asks 15c Boost, Resumes Work for 5c

Philadelphia (AP)—A six-week strike of some 350 CIO textile workers at the American Viscose plant in Nitro, W. Va., was settled last night.

Six other American Viscose plants have remained in operation. They are at Meadville, Marcus Hook and Lewistown, Pa.; Parkersburg, W. Va.; and Front Royal and Roanoke, Va.

At Nitro, business agent Bill A. Hager of the plant local said the workers accepted a five-cent-an-hour wage increase. The employees voted a month ago to call the strike when they were denied a wage boost of 15 cents an hour. Hager did not specify the present hourly wage scale.

Information on Voice Employees Is Demanded

Washington (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) announced today the State Department has agreed to hand a memorandum on the security files of two department employees to his Senate Investigations Subcommittee.

McCarthy had demanded the official reports, plus "the supporting documents" in the cases of Theodore Kagan and Edmund Schechter, who worked for the department's Voice of America propaganda broadcasts.

New Executive Here

J. RUSSELL ROHLER, above, has arrived in Warren to succeed Harold Keck as local manager of the Bell Telephone Company.

Veteran of Korea Conflict Is Named Bell Manager Here

J. Russell Rohleder has been named local manager of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, with headquarters at 301 Hickory Street, Warren. It was announced today by H. M. Stevenson, district manager of the company. He succeeds Harold F. Keck, who has been transferred to the company's directory department in Pittsburgh.

Rohleder returned last month from the Navy, where he has been serving as a pilot stationed aboard the U. S. S. Valley Forge in Korean waters. Prior to his recall to the Navy he was public office manager in Pittsburgh for the telephone company.

A native of Pittsburgh, he was attending the University of Pittsburgh before first joining the Navy during World War II. He served aboard various aircraft carriers in the Fifth Fleet and took part in the Battles of Guam, Saipan, Rota and Japan.

He started with the telephone company in 1947 as a salesman, later becoming a commercial representative. He was made a public office manager in 1950.

Mr. Keck came to Warren in November of 1950 to succeed James Cober, and was recalled to Navy duty on August 1, 1951, returning to Warren on Jan. 1, 1952. Mr. and Mrs. Keck, who reside at 117½ Redwood street, have made a multitude of friends in Warren who will regret their departure. They will maintain their home here, however, until school closes in June. Their son, Harold, Jr., is a student at Beatty.

Mrs. Slocum Remains In Critical Condition

Removal of the remains of Winthrop Slocum, former district manager of the Bell Telephone Company in Warren, who was killed February 24 in an automobile accident near Titusville, Fla., is being made today from Titusville to a mortuary in Pittsburgh.

No arrangements for Mr. Slocum's funeral will be announced at this time, pending the recovery of his wife, Helen, who is in a critical condition in a hospital at Rockledge, Fla. Mrs. Slocum's daughter, Mrs. Cyrus Sutherland of Boston, is with her.

Word received in Warren this morning was to the effect that Mrs. Slocum has but an even chance to recover from her injuries, which include a fractured skull, crushed chest and broken leg. She was driving the Slocum car when it collided head-on with a machine driven by Courtland F. Flake of Mims, Fla., who also met death in the crash.

ROY AUGUST IS PRESIDENT OF RURAL GROUP

In spite of the heavy downpour of rain about forty enthusiastic residents of the area attended the "town meeting" held last evening in the basement of the Starbrick church when it was decided to proceed with the organization of an Active Volunteer Fire Department to serve that community.

The meeting opened with Albert Toner in charge. Following a lengthy discussion, during which it was decided that a department would be formed, an election was held with the following officers chosen to complete the organization: President, Roy August; vice president, E. M. Dexter; secretary, E. J. Honhart; treasurer, Dr. David K. Rice.

With the new president in charge, the following were named as a committee to draw up by-laws: C. W. Park, Gail Geer and Frederick Berry. There followed quite a discussion concerning plans for securing equipment, housing, etc. It was decided that the department will meet the first and third Tuesdays of every month at the church basement.

Timely and valuable advice of the formation and functions of a Volunteer Fire Department was offered by a delegation of members from the Youngville Department headed by Chief Harold Clyde accompanied by G. R. Ball, Mar See and Lee Stiller.

Christian Business Men Start Building Chapel at Local

It was learned today that work has already been started by the Christian Business Men's Committee on the chapel setting it is sponsoring for the second floor meeting rooms of the YMCA.

The location of the chapel will be at the end of the second floor series of rooms where it can be used for either small or large group meetings.

The three following committee have been appointed by James Holmberg, president of the CBM for this project: planning committee—E. V. Mellander, chairman; Ernest Huber, Carl Swanson, John Mitchell; finance committee—Francis Hetrick, chairman, John Mitchell, Floyd Carter, E. V. Mellander, Oscar Pang, Bert Erickson and G. W. Casler; construction committee—Ernest Huber, chairman, Carl Swanson, Dan K. Watson, James Holmberg, Emil Erickson, and Lewis Johnson.

Also working toward the financial success of the project is Be Kofod, one of the original boosters and workers for this chapel. Be Erickson is the treasurer of the chapel fund, and along with the finance committee, there are hopes that many interested groups and friends of the "Y" will want to have a part in providing for the chapel setting.

World's

It's more than pride that makes a man want a lot of horsepower beneath the hood of the car he owns. For the real point in reaching record horsepowers and compression ratios goes beyond miles per hour. It steps up performance and economy in normal driving.

That's what Buick engineers did when they upped the power and compression of each 1953 Buick—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER—to the highest figures in Buick's fifty-year history.

In the SUPER and ROADMASTER, they put a new kind of V8 Engine—first passenger-car V8 with 8.5 to 1 compression, and a long list of other major engineering advances.

For the SPECIAL, they redesigned the big and able F-263

Fireball 8 Engine—gave it shorter flame travel, faster firing, higher horsepower and compression. And to these spirited engines they coupled the new Twin-Turbine Dynaflo Drive* that adds flash-fast, quiet getaway to utter smoothness.

Just to give you an example of what all this means: The 1953 Buick SPECIAL with Dynaflo can beat the mighty 1952 ROADMASTER on get-away—can reach 30 mph (when the law allows) with a combined speed and jerk-free smoothness no other car can equal.

Of course, there's far more to these new Buicks for 1953—some seven dozen new features alone.

But why not come in and see for yourself that these are the greatest Buicks—and the greatest values—in fifty great years?

Sensational Third Dimension Film Is Coming Next Month

Something completely different in the way of thrills for moviegoers will be shown here next month when the natural color film, "Swana Devil," opens at the library theatre either April 12 or 13, depending on completion of installations required for presenting the third dimension film in the playhouse.

Manager George C. Sarvis stated today that most of the present equipment in the theatre will have to be replaced for third dimension pictures, including a new and much larger screen.

Filmed for the most part in Africa, the movie is the world's first natural vision third dimensional picture. The story deals with an expedition on railroad building in the jungle country.

It will be impossible for the audience to take a dim view of the movie since each patron will be given glasses through which he will see the film.

Coming for an extended engagement the epic which features Barbara Britton, Robert Stack and Nigel Bruce in the leading roles, is seasonally realistic in the sense that each scene thrown on the film is in turn thrown back into the customer's lap, this supposedly being the beauty of three dimensional film plays.

Of course few complaints will be voiced when Barbara Britton comes waiting out of the canvases to the customer but nerves may become a little shattered when a lion comes leaping across the lights.

Turnpike Extension Northward to Erie Object of Meeting

Harrisburg (AP)—Sen. C. Arthur Blass (R-Erie) said today a seven-member committee of senators has been named to meet with Gov. John S. Fine to press for action on extending the Pennsylvania Turnpike northward to the Erie area.

"We hope to meet with the governor within two or three weeks," Blass told a newsmen. A proposal to build the Erie extension was approved by the 1951 Legislature. To date, no surveys have been started by the Turnpike Commission in the western area because priority has been given to extending the toll road to the Delaware River.

Traffic and engineering surveys are underway, however, in the northeastern part of the state, through which another leg of the toll road will be built to the New York border. This also was approved by the 1951 Legislature.

"Our group feels some action should be taken on the Erie extension," Blass said. "Traffic from Erie and the Middle West will provide a great feeder to the main section of the turnpike."

In addition, he said, the proposed Erie extension would relieve much traffic congestion. The delegation to see Fine will include in addition to Blass, Sens. Rowland B. Mahany (R-Crawford), Fred P. Hare Jr. (R-Somerset), John M. Walker (R-Allegheny), Murray Peacor (R-Indiana), Albert R. Pechan (R-Armstrong), and George B. Stevenson (R-Clinton).

Blass said that T. J. Evans, chairman of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, also would be invited to attend the meeting.

Warren oil men are "politicking" again... this time their nominations are for men to receive highly coveted "Old Timers" awards at the May 14-23 International Petroleum Exposition in Tulsa.

An "Old Timers" Committee, headed by W. J. Sherry, independent oil producer, Tulsa, will conduct a contest to determine the honorees.

One award will be made to a "Pioneer of Pioneers" and a "Grand Old Man" will also be selected from each major division of the industry, including production, pipeline, refining, natural gas, natural gasoline, and equipment and supplies.

Ever since John D. Rockefeller, Sr., presented similar awards at the 1927 Exposition, the tradition has been maintained at each oil show.

opportunity provided the global petroleum industry to pay sufficient tribute to those individuals who laid the foundation for the vast oil operations of today.

THE BUTTER SITUATION

According to Sam Dawson, Associated Press feature writer, Uncle Sam is going to try this month to sell some of the nearly 90,000,000 pounds of butter he has bought up since last November.

Dealers in New York, Dawson says, think he may have a hard time doing it—he's asking more than the present wholesale price of butter on this market.

At the same time he announces he will continue to support butter prices for another year, although at two cents a pound less than the 67.75 cents a pound he paid for the 90,000,000 pounds. The government's selling price is put at 70.75 cents for Grade A.

One of the most interested watchers of the government's butter troubles is the National Association of Margarine Manufacturers, which has been doing considerable crowing over the rise in consumer use of oleo last year, while butter consumption was falling.

Oleo's cheaper price has been its chief selling point. Butter retails just now in New York around 80 cents a pound and oleo around 30 cents.

Citing Department of Agriculture figures, the margarine industry says its production last year totaled 1,300,000,000 pounds, a jump of 23 per cent over 1951.

Creamery butter output is estimated by the department at 1,295,700,000 pounds. But the butter industry says that perhaps an additional 200 million pounds were churned on the farms.

The government got into the butter business again—it had a similar over-supply situation in 1949-50—because butter production just now is running 15 per cent higher than the 1947-51 average. At the same time consumption last year fell to 8 3/4 pounds per person, compared with 10 3/4 pounds in 1950.

As butter prices skidded, the government stepped in and bought up all offered at 90 per cent of parity, or 67.75 cents a pound.

The new secretary of agriculture would like to get out of the parity support deal, warning dairy farmers it "will price them out of the market," but he's giving the industry another year "to solve its own problems."

While complete details will not be known until they are worked out, announcement that the Department of Forests & Waters plans to sponsor a wild turkey sanctuary at Chapman Park was learned with considerable surprise and satisfaction by sportsmen and outdoor lovers generally through the area.

Spiritual Diary for Lent

For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.—Luke 19:10.

Today's Message

Who are you? Who am I? Chemists used to say we were worth 98 cents chemically. This is the laboratory view of life. Inflation now may bring us $1.98 if we could sell ourselves. But we can't sell ourselves, for we are not our own. Men sell themselves to all kinds of things, but they do not own their souls. That's what makes their bargains with life so dishonest. The Cross means that already we have been bought with a price. That price is God's own suffering love.

God gives us our rights. . . our birthrights in the Kingdom which has no end. But there is a second act to this drama of life. There is the prelude to being born again, as the New Testament calls it. That is the recognition that all God's children have rights no matter what their race, color or station, since Christ died for them. He died for people—you and me. The Cross is a symbol of the fact that God recognizes us all as wayward children to whom He would teach the true way of life.

Christ came to save the lost. You're lost and I'm lost if we don't know who we are. Let us pray together that we may re-discover ourselves . . . not by ourselves . . . but through Jesus Christ our Lord.

—JOHN O. MELLIN

Today's Prayer

Speak to us, our Father, that we may find ourselves. Guide our thoughts, O God, that we may see all things praising Thee: the sun, moon, stars, and the children of men discovered through Christ. This we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

Here And There

It was 71 years ago this month that The Warren Ledger carried the following interesting article under the heading "New Library Building:"

Warren is not large enough as yet to have many subjects under discussion at the same time. Just now, and for the past few weeks, the subject of Hon. Thomas Struthers' gift to the town of a building to cost in the neighborhood of one hundred thousand dollars, for the benefit of the Library Association, has been under discussion, and the committee has been at work soliciting subscriptions to purchase ground upon which to erect the magnificent structure. The money is raised, the ground purchased, accepted by Mr. Struthers, and Mr. Wood has gone to New York to engage an architect to furnish a plan and specifications. Mr. Struthers says he plans to put up a building the like of which has not yet been put up in this part of the state, in size, architectural beauty and finish. It is understood to combine library rooms and offices to rent on the second floor. The proceeds of all these places to go to the benefit of the Library to be its continuous and unending support. The lots purchased are on the corner of Liberty street and Third, where J. Sill and S. W. Waters now reside. The committee paid these gentlemen as follows for their properties. J. Sill receives $4,700, and reserves the buildings; S. W. Waters receives $3,700 and reserves his buildings, and is given a lot in the rear of the purchased lots, and fronting on Third street, to move his dwelling upon it. The total cost of the two lots is $8,500.

Mr. Struthers being a fortunate business man, having accumulated a large fortune and wishing to invest for the good of the town, before he dies, has taken this method of exemplifying his feeling and generous sentiments. This praiseworthy act will perpetuate his memory far down the stream of time. The present generation will reap the benefits as well as those who will come after. We do not propose to write Mr. Struthers' obituary at this time, and hope that he may live to see his project carried through to completion and many years thereafter. We learn the business of preparation will proceed forthwith.

Terse, Tart and Timely: So far as Bob Kinkadee, 306 Conewango avenue, is concerned, spring arrived late yesterday afternoon when he spied a robin in his back yard. . . . Have you noticed the pre-war "yo-yo" craze has again infected youngsters of Warren?

. . . Tuesday night's warm rain apparently took off most of the snow that could be observed on adjacent hillsides over the weekend. . . . Removing the accumulation of cinders from the paved streets of the borough is keeping the "white wings" busy these days. . . . St. Patrick's Day greeting cards next on the mailing agenda. . . . A number from Warren were among the 350 Shriners from Bradford and Western Pennsylvania who attended the dinner-meeting of the McKean County Shrine Club held at the Penn Hills Club Saturday evening. . . . Tomorrow evening, in the dining room of 1006 Temple, Hickory street, Lady Warren Rebekahs will serve one of those delicious ham dinners, and it isn't necessary to remind any one who has attended one of these affairs that a culinary treat awaits all who attend.

Sugar Grove Pupils Take Interesting Tour to Pittsburgh

Sugar Grove—About 40 members of the Latin classes and other students of the Sugar Grove-Farmington Joint School went to Pittsburgh Saturday to visit the museum and planetarium. They were accompanied by their teacher, Mabel Reese, and Mrs. Avis Rosen-dahl, making the trip in a bus driven by Mike Arden, Lottsville.

Mrs. Clifford Storms was hostess to the Reading Club Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Abbott were called to Kennedy by the sudden death of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Evelyn Engquist.

Mrs. Howard Joss and young son, Andy, Rochester, Pa., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schoonover.

Mrs. Harriett Northrop, member of the Lander school faculty, has been confined to her home by illness the past week.

Mrs. Walter Warner and Mrs. Neil Scott had as their luncheon guests at the former's home, Thursday, Mrs. Ethel LaQuay and Mrs. Doris Warner, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dunderdale, Akron, O., were weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Miller.

The condition of William Adams, who has been a patient at WCA Hospital at Jamestown the past month, remains serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Atkins, who have spent the past few months in Jamestown, have returned to their home on Pleasant street.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ramsburg, Cleveland, O., were weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ludvig Eckdahl. Mr. Eckdahl is able to be out again after several weeks' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith McIntosh and sons, Allen and Brian, were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warner.

YOU and YOUR CONGRESS

Washington — What would happen to prices if there were another explosion on the international front like the outbreak of fighting in Korea in June, 1950?

This question is being pondered by many in Congress as the time for decision on the future of economic controls legislation draws near.

April 30 is the expiration date of the Defense Production Act authority for federal wage, price, rent and credit controls.

Little thought is being given in Congress to extension of that authority, because most of the controls have been lifted and, also, many members of Congress are disgusted with the way controls have been administered under the Act.

However, while the subject of price control is virtually academic under present-day conditions, many members of Congress are wondering about the future. They realize that the world situation remains volatile. They remember how prices rose because of scarcity and how prices fell because of overproduction and loose federal credit control after the fighting in Korea began.

There are, at the moment, three schools of thought in Congress on the future of controls legislation.

One school, headed by Chairman Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.) of the Senate Banking Committee, believes Congress should enact a complete set of standby controls for use by the President in the event of another 1950-style emergency. He has introduced such a bill, which is very much like the Defense Production Act, and his committee will open public hearings on it soon.

Capehart and his followers argue that it was more than two months after the outbreak of the WASHINGTON WHISPERS—President Dwight Eisenhower strains to hear what Texas Gov. Allan Shivers, left, is saying, while South Carolina James Byrnes, center, stands by. The President met with a group of state governors, congressional leaders and administration officials in Washington for a conference on Federal-State relations.

Korean fighting before Congress passed a controls law and the country should not risk finding itself in that position again.

The second school of thought, which includes Chairman Jesse P. Wolcott (R-Mich.) of the House Banking Committee and Senate Majority Leader Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) believes a standby controls program is not necessary.

This school contends that wage and price controls treat merely the symptoms and not the cause (excess of demand over supply) of inflation. Therefore, it is argued, it would be a delusion to give legal sanction on an indefinite basis to wage and price controls as effective anti-inflation measures.

Wolcott also says a program of standby controls "might interfere with long-range planning by industry to take up the slack in the economy when and if defense spending slackens."

Other arguments of the anti-standby school are that the government's general credit control policy, with which to deal with inflation, is much sounder now than in 1950, and that steadily increasing supplies of goods since mid-1950 have erased public fears of any new emergency causing shortages overnight.

The third school of thought proposes sort of a compromise. For example, Rep. Abraham J. Multer (D-N. Y.), of this school, a member of the House Banking Committee, has introduced a bill that would authorize the President to invoke an enforceable 90-day freeze of prices, wages and rents in the event of "a threat to the economic stability or security" of the country. During the 90 days, Congress could enact a new controls law if it wished. It also could end the freeze immediately, or extend it or let it expire at the end of 90 days.

"The international situation is still so precarious," Multer says, "that we cannot afford to leave the President without authority to protect the consumers and taxpayers of this country against another crisis which would send prices soaring."

The President himself says he will not ask Congress for a standby controls law but will not reject it if Congress offers one.

American Legion Home At Ludlow Is Undergoing Repairs

Ludlow—The James Uber Post, American Legion, is making some major repairs to its building in the center of town, which has come to serve as a community center for the town. Then men are doing much of the work themselves, to save building costs and stretch their finances as far as possible.

Plaster repairs are being done at present and soon they will paint the interior of the main floor. After that, they plan to replace the floor and make some other needed alterations. The Legionnaires have tried many methods of raising funds for these projects, practical in a small town, and are to be commended for their valiant efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Halberg and daughter, of Kane, were Sunday guests at the Arthur Christenson home.

busy and varied program was given by members of the Kiwanian club at the luncheon-meeting today at the YWCA, with president Gus Carlson in charge. In addition to a talk on income tax by Harold Curtis, CPA, and remarks by Howard Lauffenberger on the Red Cross Blood Drive program, a number of other events occurred to make the day one of the most interesting in recent months.

Valley Sedwick read a letter from Past President Cliff Betts of Betts Machine Company, Inc. at Hollywood, Fla., where he is combining pleasure with a business trip through the south. Betts informed the local Kiwanians that on the occasion of recent visit to the Hollywood Kiwanian club, he received 21 gifts, including a basket, deep sea fishing gear, two steak dinners at Tropical Acres, two gowns for Mrs. Sedwick, a bouquet of flowers, free lubrication for one year, a drive-in theatre, passes to major league (Girls' Professional Baseball) parks, a perily conducted tour of the United States Sugar Corp., Kiwanian emblem for his car, ash tray, a Buick sedan, Snap-On Tools Index and other small gifts. He failed to explain how it happened that the Warren man was highly honored but it is learned from the Times-Mirror that the gift was the result of the fact that he was the 7,500th guest of the Hollywood club.

Mrs. Grant Speaks For Leaders' Group

The Girl Scout Leaders Association held its regular meeting in the North Warren Community house, with the president, Mrs. E. W. Switzer, presiding, and 55 leaders in attendance.

Announcements stressed were the basic leadership training, March 6, 13 and 20; the International Troop 100 bake sale March 27; benefit Magic Show, in April; Scout Jamboree March 14 in Beauty Gym.

Mr. Bell, of the Weston Cookie Company, outlined ways and means for a cookie sale; and a movie, "Birth of the Soil," was shown.

Mrs. A. A. Grant, Sugar Grove, presented a comprehensive exhibit of five tables covering the field of nature: Birds, stars and constellations, rocks and minerals, plants, and trees, with badge application to each. Her lecture to the group proved inspiring, helpful and stimulating.

Mrs. James Conner and Mrs. Gerry Archibald poured at a beautifully appointed table, with lunch served by the Sugar Grove Neighborhood Club. Serving as the committee were Miss Myrtle E. Johnson, chairman; Mrs. George LaVigne, Mrs. Eugene Anderson, Mrs. Darwin Curtis, Mrs. Burt Schoonover, Mrs. Fred Bauer, Mrs. Norman Abbott, Mrs. A. A. MANY YEARS TOGETHER—Mr. and Mrs. John Zobrist, Stoneham, married 61 years ago today in Ridgway but residents of this section for the past half-century, were honored guests Sunday for a delightful open house given in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Vernon Mack, also of Stoneham.

The couple had the pleasure of greeting about 100 relatives and friends and were remembered with many cards, a purse of money and other gifts. Their sons and daughters presented them with a corsage and boutonniere, a large basket of snapdragons and a beautiful anniversary cake, while a second cake was the gift of a niece, Mrs. Frank Hamm, Corning, N. Y.

Appointments of gold and white were prettily carried out in the table setting, with napkins reminding guests of the exact wedding date. Barbara Sullivan, their granddaughter from Youngsville, managed the guest book, which included visitors from Jamestown, Celoron, Buffalo and Corning, N. Y.; Sheffield, Youngsville, West Hickory, North Warren, Russell, Warren and the Stoneham section. Regret was expressed that Mr. Zobrist's sister, Mrs. Mary Gertch, was unable to come from Waynesboro, Va., for the happy event.

In addition to having a wedding anniversary this week, Mrs. Zobrist will also chalk up her 81st birthday milestone on Friday of this week.

SPRING CASUALS FOR MODERNS

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

Bonnie Cashion is a designer who has visualized "a kind of woman" and "a kind of life" as her guide in creating fashions.

Her "kind of woman" seems to be Mrs. Average American, who likes her clothes simple but smart, casual but flattering, versatile enough to see her through all the many activities of her busy day in comfort and in style.

Miss Cashion recently has been designing collections for various manufacturers, refusing to tie her talents down to any one bracket.

Recently she has concentrated a great deal on knitted fashions, and has done as well a collection of rain-or-shine coats for town and country which she calls "Barnstormers"—coats that can be thrown over an evening dress or a sport outfit with equal ease.

The "Barnstormers" are as different as the one-hoss shay from a 1953 model car—but they're just as practical and just as waterproof. One is a heavy slubbed black and white rayon fabric, for instance, designed like an artist's smock, and trimmed with a black velvet tie.

Another is a reversible coat, wool jersey on one side, textured rayon on the other. A metal shot cotton tweed is used for still another.

Her knitted fashions range from jackets and dresses to complete costumes, are done in soft pastels and neutrals, look like hand-knits but are done by machine. They, too, are typical of our modern "kind of life."

DEMI-COAT . . . Casual knit charmer with shawl collar that turns into hood.

VERSATILE KNIT . . . Two-piece outfit contrast monk collar, sleek slim lines.

BARNSTORMER . . . Rain-or-shine coat in black and white slubbed rayon, cut like artist's smock, with black velvet tie.

KNIT TWO-TIMER . . . Multi-stripe sun-or-fun dress with cover-up stole for all-day wear. All are designed by Bonnie Cashion

Ruth Millett This Wife Advises Women Learn to Like Your In-Laws

A WISE and understanding woman writes: "I have always wondered why so many wives are willing to tag their in-laws as 'trouble makers.' To be sure, our in-laws may have made us miserable at times, but haven't others often hurt us as much or more?"

"We would have to classify our own parents and brothers and sisters as trouble makers if we took each tactless remark as a personal insult."

"Why should our in-laws be expected to guard every word in order to keep our tender feelings from being hurt?"

"I get along with my husband's family without any special formula except treating them the way I like to be treated."

"We've had our share of misunderstandings. But I've grown up enough to realize that I wouldn't get along any better with an entirely new set of in-laws if I looked on them with suspicion the way I did in the past."

WHY NOT ACCEPT IN-LAWS AS PEOPLE?

"WHY should a wife say she puts up with her husband's relatives?"

Why not accept them as uncritically as she does her own? That is just a short letter but it has enough sound advice packed in it to guide any wife toward a happier relationship with her husband's family.

There is more in it than common sense. There is also understanding and humility.

And both these qualities are needed in any relationship that is strained as often as the in-law relationship.

As a matter of fact, if we would drop the term "in-law" from our language we would be better off.

Instead of thinking of them as your in-laws, think of them as your husband's parents who have a right to love their son as deeply as your parents love you. Do that and you'll be on the road to creating happiness within the family circle.

All Must Share Burden And Support Aged Parents

THIS letter presents one of the most difficult of human problems, for it necessitates the careful balancing of what the writer owes herself against what she owes her aging parents.

"Please answer this soon. You have so much common sense and I can't seem to see my own problem in the unbiased way a stranger would."

"I'm a schoolteacher. My brothers make more money than I do and have no families, yet will not help to support our parents. My fiancé is also a teacher and the townspeople will criticize him if we abandon my parents to get married."

"My fiancé is getting awfully discouraged. I don't blame him too much. He has to help his own father. But I am 36 and I do want my own home and a husband and children."

"My brothers say that young people shouldn't have to pay for their parents' keep as long as there are old-age pensions, etc. What can I do? I feel like a caged animal."

"I don't want to be mean to my parents. They are splendid and it is not their fault that they have no money. I've always been generous with them, but I'm so tired of being a martyr."

BROTHERS COULD HELP IF THEY WOULD

"MY brothers live out of town and it wouldn't bother them to have the old folks on old-age assistance. They haven't paid one cent, except two-dollar Christmas presents in five years, and I've been always broke because I paid for dentures, hearing aids, and their general support."

Well, let's try to strike a balance. You owe your parents something, to be sure. You owe them love, respect, attention, and whatever financial help you can give them without becoming a martyr.

You do not owe them your own chance at happiness even though it seems easy to continue to be the sole support of your parents. That is where your brothers come in. Work out a minimum budget for your parents and divide it into thirds. Then write your brothers that you are being married immediately and that you expect each of them to kick in one third of your parents' monthly budget.

No matter what your brothers say, get married. Once they see you mean business, they will realize they are now dealing with a self-respecting sister who is through with shouldering their responsibilities.

Brokenstraw Club Names Committee On Island Project

A good attendance featured the March meeting of Brokenstraw Garden Club, held at the Anderson Sisters in Pittsfield last evening, with Mrs. and Mrs. Otto Peterson as co-hosts. The roll call was "My Selection of Seeds."

A discussion was held relative to "Operation Shrub," a beautifying project on Island Park which has been co-sponsored by both the Garden Club and Youngville Kiwanians, and a committee consisting of James Hamilton, chairman, Joseph Swanson and E. H. Husted was appointed to head up this season's work.

E. C. Stillings gave his usual talk on current events; and Roy McDowell read a letter from Edward Carlson, a member vacationing in Florida, which told of the annual orchid show there.

The remainder of the program consisted of moving pictures entitled "Nylon and You," loaned by the DuPont Company.

RECENT BRIDE IS HONORED AT TEA

Mrs. Joseph Paul Scallise was hostess for an attractively appointed bridal tea which honored Mrs. Theresa Scallise Care, married to Marion Care on February 14. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Donald Chiodo and Mrs. William Bengtson.

The honored one received many lovely gifts from the following: Mrs. Fred Aumer, Mrs. Santo Faddale, Mrs. Joseph Bevevino, the Misses Lucy Gortido, Thelma Selerno, Ann Chiodo, Elizabeth James, Mrs. Jeanne Bevevino, Mrs. N. Anthony Scallise, the hostess and aides.

WHEN you first meet someone, the most important thing to remember is to get his name correctly and file it away in your mind for future use. The need to remember it may come sooner than you think, for within five minutes, you may have to introduce him to someone else. And how much more flattering the introduction will be if you don't have to turn to him and say: "I'm sorry; I didn't get your name." Get it at the introduction—and remember it.

In her autobiography, Tallulah Bankhead confesses that she got into the habit of calling everyone "Dahling" because she couldn't begin to remember the names of everyone she met.

That's all right for a stage personality—but not for you, dahling. You remember names.

Make Last Year's Straw Look Like This Year's

Spring finds this girl lacking in funds for a new hat, but her own resourcefulness comes to the rescue. She gets out her last year's straw sailor, scissors, needle and thread, and a supply of fresh new flowers (above left). For the Easter parade or an early Spring wedding, she sews tiny pink flowers on a band which she then sews to the sailor, adding a birdcage pink veil (right). A full-blown white rose stuck to the white sailor squarely in front makes a hat both smart and pretty (above, at mirror). For a tailored suit or dress, she sews black taffeta band and bow to hat and pins on an all-white daisy (top, left). She creates an ultra-Parisian hat with white jersey on which she sews tiny white velvet flowers, touched with green and yellow, worn as a snood beneath the sailor. She trims the front with a sprig of flowers to match those on the snood. You could start with your own basic shape, study this Spring's hats in your newspaper, and, using ribbon and flowers, have some creative fun.

Zontians Grateful For Cooperation Given Dimes Drive

The Warren Zonta Club has asked the Times-Mirror to publicly express to one and all the service organization's deep appreciation for the cooperation and contributions which have made it possible to reach a grand total of $10,494.23 for the 1953 March of Dimes campaign.

Warren borough came through with a total of $7,220.92, with the Mothers March on Polio realizing $2,577.32; special gifts, $2,118.70; radio, including $174 from Youngsville, $1,225.90; Tag Days, $1,043.69; iron lung collection containers, $196.91; Hi-Y-Teen basketball dance, $68.40.

In the larger rural communities, the Mothers March canvasses brought in the totals: Youngsville, $369.03; Russell, $279.94; North Warren and Venturatown, $253.53; Kinzua, 126.91; Starbrick, $114.56; Clarendon, $108.46; Pleasant township, $101., for a total of $1,353.43.

Other county reports, including tag days, school collections, coin containers, etc., included these totals:

Youngsville, $224.32; Spring Creek, $9; Russell, $24.25; Starbrick, $8.60; Scandia, $11.53; Stoneham, $10; Clarendon, $25.60; Garland, $38.13; North Warren, $22.75; Pleasant township, $12.89; Grand Valley school, $27.61; Columbus school, $36.05; Sugar Grove, $147.29; Sheffield, $271.72; Lottsville, $44;

Tidioute, $214.59; Corydon, $4.75; Chandlers Valley, $27.45; Irvine, $87.00; Torpedo, $2.00; Oakview, $8.66; Wrightsville, $2.68; Lander school, $25.78; Pittsfield, $22.55; Irvinedale school, $126.42; Bear Lake, $23.40; Lincoln school (to radio), $3.71; Warren County Pomona Grange, $5.

These sums totaled $1,496.61, which, with $423.27 raised in rural coin holders, brought the sum total to $10,494.23.

Deepest Well in Area, 5,818 Feet, Drilled Near Tidioute

Titusville Herald: "Deep well" means different things to different men.

In Pennsylvania, where the average depth of wells drilled in 1951 was 1,800 feet—and where the all-time average depth is most certainly far less than that—most oil producers regard as a deep well one which goes below the third sand.

In the Titusville region the third sand varies from 600 to 900 feet below the surface.

Geologists, however, regard as deep wells only those which are drilled to the Onondaga sandstone or deeper. The Onondaga is found hereabouts at 4,150 feet, approximately.

And again, there is still another group of men to whom "deep well" must be one which is 10,000 to 12,000 feet to qualify for the title.

But if the Mid-East well, announced yesterday for Eldred Township, Warren County, goes to 5,819 feet it will become the deepest well ever drilled within a 25-mile radius of Titusville, where the oil industry started. At that depth, it will exceed by one foot a well drilled in 1928 near Tidioute.

That well, the Ulf No. 1 of the Fidelity Petroleum Co., was on the west side of the Allegheny River.

It produced a little gas in the Red Medina and more in the White Medina, but not enough to make operating it a paying proposition.

Ulf No. 1 showed, according to the records, about 100,000 cubic feet of gas at its best. A real producer should give out with 1,000,000 cubic feet a day or more.

The second deepest well in that 50-mile diameter circle with Titusville at its center, went to 5,595 feet. It was Reeves No. 1, drilled in Southwest township, Warren county - the Grand Valley field - by Northern Ordnance Inc., in 1945. It was a dry hole. The deepest formation tested was the White Medina, according to "Summarized Record of Deep Wells in Pennsylvania" by Charles R. Fetteke.

The location of Reeves No. 1 was at the top of the hill on Route 27 just south of Grand Valley, west of the highway.

FILLING THE BROKEN GAP—This aerial view shows dramatically how raging North Sea waves smashed through Holland's dikes to create the worst flood in the nation's history. This one is at Waarde. The dotted line shows where a huge length of dike was washed out. Countless sandbags were used in the wide semicircular temporary barrier, seen at right, to help prevent any further damage by waves whipped up by gale winds.

COLD WAVE

The White Medina sandstone, which is the target of the Eldred Township well, was found about 300 feet deeper in the Northern Ordnance hole than Mid-East expects to go.

Outside the Titusville circle, the Dempseytown Gas Company's well in Elk Township, Clarion County, in 1938 sets the pace for all Northwestern Pennsylvania. It reached down 6,110 feet.

The deepest well in Pennsylvania, as of Jan. 1, 1952, is 12,321 feet. It is the California Company's No. 1 Bennett in Sullivan County, completed as a dry hole in 1951. The deepest producing well in Pennsylvania is the American Locomotive's No. 5 Steiner in Unity Township, Westmoreland County, a gas-well at 8,014 feet in the Oriskany.

Before the 1928 test near Tidioute, the deepest well ever drilled in the Titusville region was put down by Jonathan Watson, world's first oil millionaire, in the early 1870s. The Watson well reached 3,553 feet and was dry. No records were preserved of it, to the grief of geologists. Its location Enterprise road, opposite the was south of the East-Titusville homes of Mrs. Anna Duncan and C. J. Burkett, probably somewhere on the pasture now owned by Durwood Walters.

Attempts to discover oil and gas in the more deeply buried formations under Western Pennsylvania have been made at intervals since Watson's time. The well of the Presque Isle Natural Gas Co., drilled to a depth of 4,420 feet between 1887 and 1889 in the city of Erie, was one of the earliest of these. Extensive explorations of deep formations did not start, however, until 1930. Prior to that year only 36 wells had been drilled to the Onondaga or deeper. In the last few years the drilling of deeper wells has been spurred by the success of the gas wells in the Leidy field, Clinton County, where 8,000 feet is not unusual.

Until about five years ago all deep Pennsylvania wells were drilled by the cable tool method—simply banging a sharp point again and again into the ground just as Drake put down his well in 1859. Rotary tools, which spin the drill into the ground, were used in the west to drill tremendous holes—Wyoming has a record well, 20,521 feet deep—but were regarded as unsuitable for the tougher Pennsylvania rocks. However, rotary drilling has now been adapted to the East, and many of the deep Leidy field wells are drilled by that method. The venture early this week fairly deserves the name "wildcating." There are no records of any deep wells—by any definition—in that territory. The upper sands in the area have, however, been tested in the times past, and there are properties not far south that are regarded as good producers, but most of the territory around the new project has been tried and abandoned.

Complaint Against The Penelec Dismissed

Harrisburg (P)—Industrial and commercial rates charged by the Pennsylvania Electric Co., Johnstown, will remain the same, under a Public Utility Commission ruling.

The commission dismissed complaints filed against the utility by the National Forge and Ordnance Co., Irvine, and Judson Dairy, Franklin.

The two firms protested a utility rate increase of $950,000 a year that went into effect on Dec. 1, 1948.

The utility commission found that the rates "do not yield in excess of a fair return on any reasonable fair value finding."

Commissioner John B. Conly, Pittsburgh, dissented. He claims

ASKS INVESTIGATION Harrisburg (P) — A Clearfield County lawmaker wants a legislative committee to investigate the functions of the state Fish and Game Commissions with an eye toward economies.

Rep. Harris G. Breth, a Democrat who writes an outdoors column for several newspapers, introduced a resolution last night to set up a nine-man house committee to look into the matter.

ECONOMICS MAJOR

St. Bonaventure University has established a major in economics leading to the Bachelor of Science degree. The new major will provide an intensive background in the theory of Economics with the objective of preparing young men for professional careers in Economics and Analysis. The course will be made up of 30 credit hours in the major field with the usual cultural background constituting the other parts of the course.

Absolute zero, the point at which in theory all molecule activity ceases, occurs at 459.6 degrees below Fahrenheit.

The commission's procedure during the long litigation was improper. No residential rates were involved in the case.

CARS GET THE SQUEEZE IN SMASHUP—Believe it or not, Raymond Marchetti, of Long Beach, Calif., walked away from this smashup with only a crushed hand, but his car didn't get off as easy. The truck driver was uninjured.

CONDEMNATION OF RUSSIANS ENSLAVEMENT POLICY' DOES NOT AFFECT BIG POWER PACT

Washington (AP) — Sen. Taft (R., Ohio), said today President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles agree that a resolution to condemn Russian "enslavement" of other peoples in no way affects World War II big power agreements.

Taft's statement was in reply to Democratic taunts that by revising the wording of the resolution originally submitted by Dulles the Republicans had "emasculated" a cold war propaganda device sought by the President.

Whether it had any legal effect or not, the revision stirred up a lot of Democratic opposition. Thus it may have jeopardized chances for the overwhelming vote Dulles has said it needs to have any propaganda effect.

Taft declared in an interview:

Bradford Engineer On Research Group

Frank M. Brewster, Jr., of Belmont Quadrangle Drilling Corporation, Bradford, has accepted appointment as a member of the Pennsylvania Grade Crude Oil Association's production research advisory technical committee.

The committee steers the non-profit association's research in production of petroleum by secondary recovery methods. Several projects continuously are under investigation at the Penn Grade laboratory established in Bradford in 1944. Other studies are assigned to the Pennsylvania State College's school of mineral industries. Research funds come from producers and refiners of Pennsylvania Grade crude oil and oil companies elsewhere that are interested in secondary recovery.

Brewster joined Belmont Quadrangle after completing studies in 1945 at the University of Chicago where he received bachelor of philosophy and master of business administration degrees. Before World War II, he studied aeronautical engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He served during the war as a first lieutenant in the Air Corps in charge of two experimental wind tunnels at the Air Materiel Command, Wright Field.

Active in the American Petroleum Institute, he is program chairman and a former secretary of its study committee on secondary recovery. He was program chairman of last year's Pittsburgh meeting of the API's eastern district, division of production.

"Both Mr. Dulles and President Eisenhower agree that nothing in the present resolution is intended to affect the validity or the status of whatever it is of the Yalta agreements in one way or another."

Taft, the Republican Senate leader, would not go so far as to say, however, that Eisenhower and Dulles specifically approve an addition made to the resolution yesterday by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

By an 8-6 vote largely on party lines, the committee wrote into the resolution a declaration that its adoption would "not constitute any determination by the Congress as to the validity or invalidity of any of the said agreements or understandings."

This was done over Democratic opposition to satisfy what Taft and Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R., N. J.) said were demands—largely from Republicans—that Congress should not affirm the agreements made by Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Truman at Yalta and other conferences.

"A lot of people denounced the Yalta agreements in the campaign and now don't want to be put in the position of affirming them," Smith said.

Despite the obvious risk that the Democrats, who condemned the change roundly, might not go along, the Senate Republican Policy Committee voted unanimously to stand behind the committee's action. Its chairman, Sen. Knowland of California, said he hopes that after the Democrats study the revised resolution they will decide to support it.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas opened immediate fire with a declaration that he would "oppose any effort to attach partisan amendments that will jeopardize the President's prestige before the country and the world."

Wiser

Albert Payson Terhune, writing in the Reader's Digest under the title, "The Most Unforgettable Character I've Met," tells a most fascinating story about a giant auburn-and-snow collie. After relating several interesting facts about the fine dog, the author writes:

"There was something almost psychic, too, about the big auburn dog. When I was eating in the dining room, he always lay in his corner, his eye on me. But when I chanced to be drinking there, he would quietly get up after my second or third drink and leave the room, to the detriment of guests who had seen him do it before."

"I was not in the least drunk, but he seemed to note and resent a subtle change in me that no human could have seen. If I called him, he came back instantly and stood at my side, head and tail adroop as if in shame, awaiting my orders. But as soon as my attention was turned he would go out again; nor come in except at my command, and then only for a moment."

It is an old saying that a dog is man's best friend, and there are times when it appears that they are wiser than their masters.

RAGE

Liquor and Minors: In 1952, there will be legislative sessions in forty-four states. In many of these sessions, legislation will be proposed which will be intended to protect persons under twenty-four years of age from sales exploitation of the liquor traffic. In 1952, the legislatures of California, Maine, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Utah, and Wisconsin took action intended to serve this worthy purpose. Idaho is expected to do so in 1953. It is admittedly difficult for a bartender to be sure as to the age of his customers, but he should be expected to "play safe", in fact, there has been a scandalous license in this whole matter. Groups of young people have proven this time and time again by having teen-agers purchase liquors.

Maxim Slim Favorite Over Danny Nardico

Miami, Fla., (AP)—Joey Maxim making his first start since he lost the light heavyweight title to Archie Moore, is a shrinking 7 to 5 favorite over rugged Danny Nardico of Tampa tonight in a 10-rounder at Miami Stadium.

Surprising support for Nardico, who made a big hit locally by knocking Jake LaMotta off his feet for the first time, Dec. 31, brought the price down from an early 2 to 1 close to even money. Nardico might even enter the ring the favorite if the current trend continues.

The bout, scheduled for 10 p. m. (EST) will be beamed across the nation on a television network (CBS). In case of rain, TV fans will see a stand-by bout from Washington, D. C. between middleweights Willie Troy and Holly Mints. The Maxim-Nardico show would be postponed 'til Wednesday, March 11.

The United States Capitol building covers approximately three and one-half acres.

Schoolboys Learn Yankee Way Rounding Bases With Stengel

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Organized baseball, crying for superior talent, could learn a lot from Casey Stengel.

The Yankees' pre-training-season school moved to Lake Wales, Fla., but managers, coaches and scouts in this area still talk of Manager Stengel taking the New York Yankees' and other schools around the bases in Glendale, Calif.

They had never seen anything like Professor Stengel lecturing 150 Glendale Hoover High School lads from the dugout to the batter's circle and plate, from base to base and through the outfield.

It struck a lot of us on the sideline that if every manager in the organized game did this, it would be of much more importance to baseball than, say the Hall of Fame.

Professor Stengel gave the schoolboys the same treatment prescribed for 14 Yankee organization pitchers, four catchers, eight infielders and five outfielders ordered to his backyard in Glendale.

"No horse play on the bench," lectured Professor Stengel. "Pay strict attention to the game. Pitchers walk to the batter's circle and wait there just like everybody else. Watch the pitcher and the catcher, who may tip off his signs. The man in the batter's circle should be thinking of what he should do if the batter gets on base."

At first base, Professor Stengel demonstrated how a man with an extra-base hit in sight should not make the big turn, but touch the bag with his left foot if he can and cut for second. There was a lesson in taking a lead. At second base, the students were told to watch the coaches, instructed in how not to be picked off.

"Move with the pitch," thundered Professor Stengel. "Don't get caught going back to the base from which you are coming while the pitch is being made."

At third base the class was taught how to score on balls hit to the infield, when to go and when to fake going, but by all means, start.

When Professor Stengel and the faculty had finished, all hands had considerably more than a rough idea of how to play baseball the New York American way.

Bradford's Expert Shooting Brings Victory Over Kane In Northern Tier Game at Beaty

When the half-time horn sounded on Beaty Junior High court last night, Bradford High cagers had scored 80 per cent of their field goal attempts, and that just about tells the story of their 55-48 Northern Tier championship victory over the Kane Wolves last night.

Both teams had split their two-game series, resulting in the play-off, and now Bradford will play a best of three series with Clearfield, Southern Section champ, for the District Nine title. The first game will be at Bradford this Friday night.

In the first period of last night's fray, the Owls forged ahead, 18-7, and continued their terrific pace in the second frame with 21 points for a 39-21 half time advantage. The Hilltoppers made a comeback in the second half, but were unable to edge within less than five points of the Owls in the closing chapter.

The third canto showed the Wolves outscoring Bradford, 11-6, and then 16-10 in the last period. Joe Girard, who was the key figure in last Friday's win over Kane, again sparked the Owls with his floor play and tallied 12 points to boot along with Giardini and Carlson. Jim Smart took the night's laurels with 14 points for Kane, while Miglizzo and Novosel each garnered 10 apiece.

Sharon and Allentown Are District Winners

By DICK HOENIG
Harrisburg, (AP)—Allentown High's basketball team today had in its grip a coveted Class A state PIAA playoff berth and along with that a full measure of revenge against neighboring rival Bethlehem for a year-old debt.

The Allentown five, 1951 state champions, waited until the final quarter before turning on the pressure last night at the University of Pennsylvania Palestra to rack up an eight point victory over Bethlehem in a playoff for the season title of the East Penn League.

Other action found Sharon, the team that dethroned Farrell in Section 3 of the WPIAL, routing Monaca (Sect. 8) in a Dist. 7 quarterfinal. The classy Tigers are rated along with Ford City and Greensburg, as top contenders for the district title.

Kiner Still Barks In Doghouse, Dark Signs With Giants

By BEN OLAN
Sports Writer
It took a long time for Alvin Dark and the New York Giants to get together on contract terms and it will probably take the rest of the spring training season for Manager Leo Durocher to decide where the 30-year-old infielder will play this year.

Dark finally agreed to sign a contract yesterday. A telephone conversation with Giant President Horace Stoneham rang the bell for a two-year pact calling for an estimated $32,500. Dark is the first Giant player since Walker Cooper in 1946 to receive a two-year contract.

On the other holdout fronts, Ralph Kiner was in the Pittsburgh doghouse yesterday. Kiner, reportedly barking for some $70,000 of the Bucs' cash, remains at his Palm Springs, Calif., home and his absence from the Pirates' Havana quarters is causing no end of anguish to President John Galbreath.

Junior Varsity Of Youngsville Hands Corry 37-28 Defeat

Youngsville High's junior varsity avenged its initial set back and extended its win streak to 18 straight games when it dumped Corry High Jayvees, 37-28, in a prelude at Youngsville last night.

The Baby Beavers handed the passers of Coach Warren Carr their first and only defeat for a commendable 18-1 campaign.

Youngsville's Dick Culver shared scoring honors with Wood of Corry, each hitting for 13 counters.

Jim Jeffries Dies; One of the World's Best Heavyweights

Burbank, Calif. (AP)—James J. Jeffries—Big Jim, the boilermaker boy who became one of the world's greatest heavyweight boxing champions—died last night. He was 77.

Jeffries, a semi-invalid since a stroke seven years ago, died in his home in bed after asking his niece and housekeeper, Mrs. Lilian Bull, to call a doctor.

He had been feeling rather well in recent weeks, even up to attending a social function or two, Mrs. Bull said. But he died before the doctor arrived.

Dr. William M. Nethery said a heart attack coronary thrombosis was the cause.

Never knocked out in his 19-year ring career, Jeffries reigned as king of the heavyweights from 1899 to 1906, when he retired undefeated. But, coaxed out of retirement, he met Jack Johnson, his successor as champion, in 1910. Johnson won on a technical knockout in the 15th round to close the career of Jeffries, then 35.

But in his prime, many veteran fight fans aver, there was no one like Big Jim for speed and hitting power. Carrying 220 pounds on a 6 foot 1½ inch frame at his peak, he twice knocked out Jim Corbett and the great Australian, Ruby Robert Fitzsimmons.

His victories over Sailor Tom Sharkey, Gus Ruhlin and Joe Choynski rank among the fiercest battles in the days when prize-fights were long and brutal. His overall record: 23 fights, 11 knockouts, 7 decisions, 2 draws, 2 exhibitions—and the one loss to Johnson.

Born in Carroll, O., April 15, 1875, of Irish-American stock, Jeffries was one of eight children of a Methodist clergyman. The family moved to Los Angeles when Jim was only 6, and the lad went to work early in railroad shops and iron foundries as a boilermaker.

He had his first professional fight in 1891, at the age of 16, knocking out Hank Griffin in the 14th round and earning $500. His mother then persuaded him to quit the ring until he was 21.

Jeffries won the heavyweight title by knocking out Fitzsimmons in the 11th round at Coney Island, N. Y., June 9, 1896. Five months later he successfully defended his crown with a 25-round decision over Sharkey.

Warren May Put Independent Baseball Team in Loop With Erie, Titusville and Oil City

Rumor has it that certain local baseball enthusiasts are attempting to organize an independent team to play in a four-team league with Erie, Titusville and Oil City this season.

Agitation for the four-team League seems to have started among Erie promoters, and it is understood it is being favorably considered in Titusville and Oil

City, towns where strong independent teams have existed the past several years.

There is plenty of good material in and around Warren to form a team fast enough to compete in such a circuit. It is understood that Richard (Diz) Hines has been approached on the proposition and has been sounding out other interested players and fans with encouraging reaction.

Youngsville Eagles Fly High, Defeat Corry by Four Points To End Season in Fine Fettle

Frank Kamus' Youngsville High Eagles ended their regulation season in a blaze of glory last night, when they blew a nip and tuck ball game wide open in the last quarter to defeat Corry High, 51 to 47. The contest was played on the Youngsville High hardwood and was a warm-up for the Class B team's playoff with Mercer, Mercer-Venango County champs, at Oil City next Monday night.

At the end of the half last night the game was all knotted up, 20-20, and Corry had taken a 36-36 lead going into the fourth canto. Here the Kamusmen blasted the hoop for 15 points to Corry's nine.

Stoudt, a reserve, moved into the starting lineup, led the Eagles with 16 points and Dallas Haight was next with 14. Corry's Eddie Hatch earned the night's honors with 19 points.

High Winds Result
In Emergency Calls
For Fire Department

Warren firemen were kept busy yesterday afternoon and during the night when high winds caused power interruptions and roof damages in town.

About 6:30 o'clock, the emergency truck went to the foot of East street where power wires had fallen and become entangled in branches of trees, causing a short circuit. They stood by until Peneltec repair crews took over.

At 7:10 p. m., they went again to 20 Water street in the same neighborhood where another wire burned off in the trees, and again stood by for guard duty until repairmen fixed the break.

At 2:20 a. m. today, the aerial truck was called to the Pickett Hardware Building on Pennsylvania avenue at Liberty when a tin roof on the east side of the building became loosened by the winds. Aided by city police, firemen removed the roof parts and repairs are being made this morning. While on this call they also removed a large electric sign in front of Weigel Motor Sales when it was found that a chain holding the sign had been broken as it swayed in the wind.

Yesterday afternoon, shortly before three o'clock, the emergency truck went to 121 East Wayne street where a fire had developed in the rear seat of an automobile owned by William Jordan. Firemen are of the opinion that it was caused by cigarette sparks. They used a booster line to soak the seat.

Local Truck Salesman
To Attend GMC Meeting

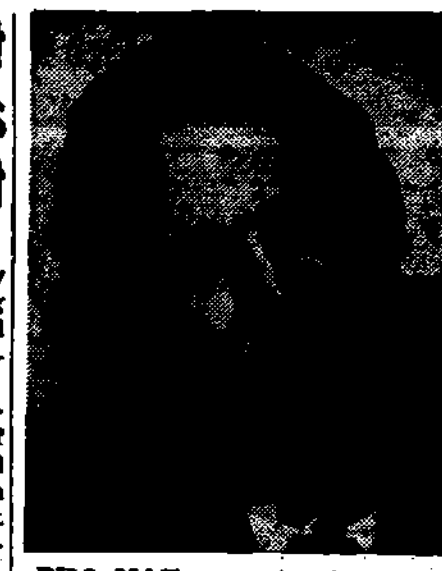

Robert Stewart, salesman for the C. C. Smith Co. leaves tomorrow for Pittsburgh for an important meeting with GMC Truck officials from Pontiac, Mich., to discuss new model GMC trucks and sales plans for 1953. Accompanying Mr. Stewart will be Ben Corbran, truck foreman.

Information on new product developments in GMC Truck, new parts and service and other subjects will be covered in the meeting, which will start with luncheon at noon and carry on through the afternoon.

According to R. C. Woodhouse, general sales manager for the truck division, the meeting promises to be one of the most interesting and outstanding in company history.

Last month GMC announced it has available the famed Hydramatic transmission in 19 models of the light truck line, and dealers in this zone are expected to hear about other sensational product developments at the meeting.

CORYDON

Corydon—Mr. and Mrs. R. W.
Adams have received word from their son, Edward, recently inducted into the Army, that he has been assigned to Camp Rucker,
Ala. Another local young man,
Robert Hammond, has been transferred from Bainbridge, Md., to a new post in Oklahoma.

The past Friday concluded Pomona Institute meetings. Paul R.
Dunley attended the session in Warren, serving as one of a committee.

Mrs. C. A. Benton and Mrs. Roy
Adams were weekend Bradford callers.

Rev. Viola Doverspike and Mrs.
George Akers spent Friday in Randolph.

Word comes from Mrs. Lida Wilcox that she is well and enjoying her stay in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.
She further states it is nice and warm there.

In the "Here and There" column of Warren Times-Mirror, localites read with interest concerning Cpl.
Sorenson of Corydon. No family by that name ever resided here but possibly at Willow Creek. Residents there give Corydon as a post office address.

Ludlow Residents Organize for Red Cross Fund Drive

Ludlow—Adolph Johnson, local Red Cross chairman and director of the Kane Chapter, announces he is hopeful the annual drive for funds, started March 2, may be completed in two weeks. The 1953 quota for Ludlow is $600 and the following are the committee workers:

Mrs. John Stamm, Mabel Peterson, Mrs. Albert Carlson, Mrs. Eric Peterson, Millie Morelli, Ernest Carlson, Myrtle Johnson, Adolph Johnson, Ludlow; Jane Lindquist, Wetmore.

The Covenant Ladies Aid was entertained at the Mission church Thursday evening by Mrs. Ernest Carlson, with a fair attendance. Mrs. Carlson also led the meeting, in which the following appeared: Rev. Raymond Dahlberg; Mary Jo on the program: Vocal selections, Beckwith, and Norma Bergquist; poem, Ernest Carlson; reading, Sylvia Carlson. Refreshments were served in the late evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Carlson, Main street, observed their 45th wedding anniversary at their home February 24th. Guests at their home for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baton, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman and two daughters, Buffalo.

Mrs. G. D. Swanson entertained at her home, when friends and relatives gathered to help her celebrate her birthday. Out of town guests included her small grandchildren, Ann and Bobbie of Warren. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Morelli, who are the parents of a son born last week at Jamestown.

Holy Communion was observed at the First Mission church Sunday, with the Rev. Raymond Dahlberg giving the message. "Two Kinds of Sinners" was the subject chosen by the Rev. Hans Pearson at Moriah church Sunday. Members of this church are again reminded of the Lutheran World Action appeal, with the congregational quota set at $316. Gifts may be placed in the special envelope for this purpose and presented any time during Lent.

Eleanor Johnson, teacher in the Kane public school system, gave a much appreciated lecture and series of colored slides at the Lutheran church, with about 90 present. Miss Johnson traveled in Europe last summer and pictures represented European spots of natural beauty, architecture, and people as she saw them at work and play. She had some harrowing experiences while taking some of them. Her pictures of Lutheran World Action at work showed the urgent need for continued efforts in this work. She was assisted by Mrs. Melvin McCleary and Mrs. William Hanson. The audience was welcomed by

Hal Boyle Finds Many Signs Of Spring in the Big City

New York, (AP)—It is hard to tell when spring really gets to Manhattan.

But its heralds are already here... The crocus lights a yellow fire in every florist shop window... Three suburbanites, their noses still running, are galloping about the office, baying "I saw the first robin!"

You put your hand against Rockefeller Center and it feels a little warmer... The breezes blow skirts a bit higher, and the druggist says, "Well, spring's about here... More and more people are coming in asking me to help get a clunker out of their eye!"

The kids, still shivering, begin playing stick ball in the streets... The sun reaches down with friendlier fingers... The air seems fresher and brighter, as if it had been through a filter... But the city itself looks shabby and seedy, like a bum awakening from a hangover in a clean new day... Manhattan always is frostiest just at the last edge of winter...

The calendar says spring is still nearly three weeks away... But you can't tell that to the fat strutting pigeons in the park, taking crumbs from passersby in waddling contempt... These feathered handout artists take people as just a necessary evil a bird has to put up with if he wants to live in the city... The tree buds are opening pale hands, gambling against a late frost...

The sporting good stores have jumped the gun a bit, too. Their windows are full of fishing tackle... And businessmen, bunched in their topcoats, look in and dream of a leaping trout... Stenographers quit dreaming of "the one that got away" during the winter... They get out resort folders and start dreaming of the new unknown fish they will snare on their summer vacation...

This is the way spring comes to the big city... An ache in the night... An invisible wind that turns every heart to a yearning violin... But the surest sign of all is when you come home and find your wife looking like a gypsy-cowboy, a rag around her head, a dust-cloth in her hands and that now - don't - give - me - any - argument - just - start - moving - the - furniture look in her eyes...

When a pigeon starts making her nest and a housewife starts upsetting hers, never mind what the calendar says or the weather is up to... Spring has arrived.

Greenland generally is considered to belong to North America, its nearest neighbor being the Canadian island of Ellesmere.
